Lisbon, 13th—The Deputies have refused to discuss the recognition of the provisional Government of Brazil.

GALVESTON.

Paris, 13th.—Panama Canal shares have fallen 17 francs in the past week, owing to the report of the Committee. The nominal price of the shares is thirty-eight francs, and not saleable at that. Credit Foncier Shares have fallen sixty-eight francs, owing to revelations about the management, and the failure of a speculator, named Bex, who owes it 1,875,000 francs. The Vice-President resigned, owing to revelations that the company had spent 8,750,000 francs in bribing the papers. Almost all the provincial papers were in the pay of the Credit Foncier. In the past twelve years 46,400,000 francs have been paid to the press. The Finance Minister having expressed his belief in the honesty of the manager, M. Christophle, stopped the fall in the shares and caused a rise of thirty-four francs.

Cairo, 13th—Dr. Zucheniste has received a letter from Emin Pasha, which says that he at once decided to adopt the German side when he saw that the English wanted to take advantage of him. He says he has sensational news to give about Stanley and Tippoo Tib.

London, 13th.—Stanley said yesterday that he was surprised at England's apathy in face of Germany's action in Africa. If England continued her inactive policy Germany would acquire a dominant influence in that region.

London, 13th—The Pope is said to be content with the concessions of the German Government, and to disapprove of the Catholics asking for more.

Berlin, 13th.—In the debate on the Colonial Budget, Caprivi said that he agreed with Bismarck in regard to colonial policy, that it could only be carried out with the support of the nation. Government could not retrace its steps in colonial matters without losing prestige and money. His having accepted the post of Chancellor did not involve a change in his opinions, as Government would always protect German interests abroad.

THE ARGENTINE CRISIS.

London, April 4th.

Last week the Times and other papers were full of telegrams and letters of the most cheerful description regarding Buenos Aires and the rest of Argentina. The crisis was over, in fact there was no crisis at all; the Government was going to cremate some of the redundant paper money every month, and the issue of Cedulas was to be stopped peremptorily. All classes of Argentine securities rose, especially when Mr. John Morris published a letter from Buenos Aires to the effect that the grain crop this year would reach five million tons or two hundred million bushels. It must be very doubtful whether the combined wheat and maize crops will reach fifty million bushels, but there is such a spirit of exaggeration in the figures published about Argentine agriculture that I am not surprised at Mr. Morris's.

Unfortunately, the improvement in Argentine stocks on this side of the equator has not been seconded by a corresponding growth of confidence at Buenos Aires. Quite the contrary. The gold dollar, by to-day's telegram, is quoted at 268 cents currency, and seems rapidly rising towards 300. This would lead us to suppose that the people of Buenos Aires foresee breakers ahead. A gentleman who arrived last week from the River Plate expresses his conviction that gold will be quoted at 400 before the end of the year, reducing the shinplaster to twelve pence. It is only five years since the suspension of specie payments and in that time the dollar has fallen by degrees from forty-eight to eighteen pence, an average loss of sixpence a year; if it go on for two years longer the "peso fuerte" will then be worth six pence.

Only a year ago, I proposed seriously that the Government, the Congress and the people should make some effort to redeem the currency at two for one. That is now out of the question, but it is still possible to redeem at three for one. Enormous fortunes will certainly be made at Buenos Aires if the currency be allowed to sink gradually to the level of "assignats;" wide-spread losses and ruin will be the result, for such consequences are inseparable.

Half the misfortune of the present situation consists in the fact that the public are utterly be-fogged by it. They do not see, or will not see, that colossal fortunes must result to many persons from every fresh depreciation of the currency. It is as inevitable as that the working-classes must suffer severely. The old heresy that "the more paper-money the better" has still thousands of believers even in Buenos Ayres, not to speak of Tucuman or Cordoba. Hence you are never safe at any moment from a fresh issue of paper-money. A Rosario gentleman wrote to the STANDARD last October that paper-money plentifully distributed had saved the Republic from a much more severe crisis. On this principle another issue of 100 millions would be the greatest possible benefit to the Argentine nation.

In all fallacies there is a per-centage of truth, and I have no doubt that a fresh issue of 20 million shinplasters would cause a certain feeling of relief, and postpone the crisis (which has not come yet) for three or perhaps six months. Next year, if not sooner, another issue of assignats would be requisite. All these postponements would only make the smash more terrible when it does come.

The great house of Overend Gurney was bankrupt 7 years before it actually failed, and the notaries assert that if it had closed its doors in 1860 the damage done would not have been one-tenth of what it was. This is a practical lesson which has its application in Buenos Ayres. If the crisis of January 1885 had been properly met we should not now be floundering in the quagmire. If any serious resolution had been adopted in 1887, when the prescribed term for Curso Forzoso expired, to reduce the volume of shinplasters the gold premium would never have exceeded 40 or 50 per cent. As matters now stand who can say what a few months may bring? At all events the real crisis has not come, though it seems approaching.

THE EXHIBITION.

II.

The visitor, fagged and disappointed after the inspection of wools, hides and seeds in the first main building, begins to revive and breathe more freely as he descends into the gardens, his footsteps guided by the music of Mercer's pavilion, where a good luncheon is in perspective. As he emerges from the main building, the first object that strikes his eye is a log of Tucuman Quebracho Colorado, over a metre in diameter. We happened to examine the mammoth log at the same time as an Argentine Judge, a popular corralon broker, and a local editor. The judge ventured to wonder how old the tree must have been, remarking, very truly, that the quebracho is of very slow growth. The local editor flippantly asserted that the tree must have been five hundred years old, while the corralon broker, to whom all kinds of lumber were familiar, joined issue. He showed how an oak of that diameter, a tree of much quicker growth than the quebracho, would reckon at least four centuries. He opined that the quebracho tree in discussion must have been fifteen hundred years old, and to judge by the condition of the bark and softer portion of the lumber, it must have fallen centuries ago before being cut up and sent to Palermo. He believed that two thousand years must have elapsed since the birth of the tree to date, and taking out his note book he astonished all with the following figures of the maximum age of several trees:—

	Years.
Palm	250
Cypress	386
Lemon	640
Cedar	800
Walnut	900
Lime	1076
Spruce	1200
Oak	1600
Olive	2000
Yew	2880
Baobad	5000
Dragon	5900

After this interesting disquisition on trees, we followed the crowd to an umbrella-looking pavilion, whence the sounds of most vigorous music were wafted in all directions. We at first thought it was a German brass band, then we became convinced it was a Wagnerian orchestra, but on entering the pavilion to the strains of the Overture in Rossini's Semiramide, we found out that the flood of harmony came from a big vertical music-box made by two enterprising Frenchmen in the Calle Mejico. Around the gigantic music-box were ranged tables, all covers set, and inviting the guests to luncheon. The presiding genius of the pavilion is the famous restaurateur M. Mercer. The place can be recommended for cleanliness, good cuisine, polite attendance, and moderate charges. The music gives fresh zest to the appetite.

From Mercer's pavilion there is but a step to the second large building, running parallel with the main edifice fronting the Calle Santa Fe. In this second building machinery of all descriptions, principally agricultural, holds sway, and in the maze of wheels and funnels we again sighed for a catalogue to unravel the merits of each engine and machine. There was a sameness about the pattern of all the machines that led us to suppose that all had been constructed on the latest and most approved pattern, and we do not think that we are far astray.

The machinery hall would be very much more interesting if the engines were set working for the benefit of visitors every day in the week. As they lie motionless, the general visitor gets no idea of their power or special attributes, and the display is uninteresting. We remarked some fine exhibits of Messrs. Blackstone and Co. of Stamford, also of Foster engines. Messrs. Agar Cross and Co. have a large section of the hall and have a fine show of machinery of McCormick, Ruston, Proctor and the Marseilles Manufacturing Co., of the States. Messrs. Agar also exhibit three very large American maize shellers also of the Marseilles Manufacturing Co.; thrashing machine of Ruston Procter; a patent safety boiler of Badcock and Wilcox, of Glasgow; two hay presses of Eisel make; two Albion mowers of Harrison and McGregor; seven McCormick mowers; ploughs the Howard; rakes; harrows; cream separators; and last, not least, two American farmers' wagons, which we recommend to the special attention of estancieros and sheepfarmers.

Messrs. Runciman and Co. exhibit maize shellers by Robey, and a fine portable engine with patent fixings; carriages and engines of Garrett Smith and Co., of Magdeburg.

Messrs. Moore and Tudor have a first-class show of gleaners, thrashers, ploughs, engines, etc., of Blackstone make and Marseilles Manufacturing Co.

Mr A. Shanks exhibits engines, mowers, and weighing machines of excellent finish. Messrs. M'Gregor, Aitken & Co. have a splendid show of patent tubes and pipe-joints. Messrs Walsh, Lovett & Co. have a big display of engines by Marshall, Son and Co, of Gainsboro'; also a thresher by same with patent grain saving apparatus; a special feature is the show of pulsometers for which the firm is famed; also a compound fixed engine with patent automatic extension gear of 25 horse power and patent lubricators.

Messrs S. York & Co. exhibit a very large fixed engine by Davey, Passmann and Co., 25 horse-power; locomotives by Browne & May, and umbrella tents. Then follow more engines, more ploughs, more machinery, till the visitor wearies of the display, and is glad to get away into the grounds devoted to the exhibition of horses, sheep and cattle in the foreground and the beautiful chalets of the Swedish pavilion and J. J. Drysdale in the background. It is impossible to dwell on each particular section in detail for the present, but at leisure we shall devote special chapters to the several pavilions. Before concluding this chapter we may call attention to some wire fencing exhibited by Mr. C. English. All cattle-lords and sheepmen should inspect this fencing and judge for themselves of the wonderful simplicity of the new patent "varilla", which saves much expense and time. This new triangular "varilla" does away with all the trouble attending the old "varilla" system and must become general before long. There is no longer any need of drawing the wires through the "varillas," no fear of the "varillas" twisting or breaking, and no need of drawing the wires from the post once the "varilla" is injured. The patent is so simple that one wonders, verily, how the old system could have ever been adopted.

THE PROGRESS OF SANTA FE.

THE GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE.

The Santa Fe Legislature was opened on Monday last, and His Excellency the new Governor, although he is only a few days in office, read a message of appalling length, equal in extent to all his predecessors' messages rolled into one. We take this as a sign of the immense progress of the Province and the marked literary tendencies of Mr. Cafferata. H. E. began by pointing out the necessity of reform, a policy we have all been urging for years. Already the local Constitution has been reformed, and the sooner a complete reform is made the better for the Province. After bestowing a few words of praise on the police, a deserving body, who have the misfortune of being generally judged by their bad and not their good qualities, the Governor proceeds to examine financial matters. The bonds issued by virtue of the law of August 14, 1886, to convert the consolidated external debt, amounted up to December 31st ult. to $3,491,600, there being a balance on hand of $2,508,400, which makes up the 6 millions redeemed. To defray the service of the home debt the Treasury handed the Government $244,114.50. Government paid $215,160, and the balance was added to the balance already in hand, $42,422·55 making a total balance in hand of $71,675·75. The new treasury notes for the withdrawal of certain credits will soon be ready. These notes will be redeemed in their turn during the year. The revenue of the province last year was $4,550,097·12 and after deducting for the expenses of the administration, the province remains with a balance of $484,657·92. The floating debt amounts to $3,780,155·79, which will be reduced to $1,879,913·58. The Home Debt comprises the Consolidated Debt (1886) 3,472,300 dollars and the foreign debt is made up as follows: 1883 Loan $6,689,766·52 gold and the loan of 1888 $10,311,840 gold. Besides this, the Government owes Messrs. Five Lillee, lessees of the provincial railways, the guarantee for 1889, 1,317,183 dollars, payable in five per cent bonds. This amount has to be reduced by five per cent, the gross profits of the railway, 265,187 dollars. The working of the Provincial Bank during the year was satisfactory, the increase in operations, as compared with the preceding year, amounting to 272 millions. The net profits were 1,102,441 dollars. The law authorising the Government to make a loan for twenty millions, in order to increase the capital of the bank to twenty-five millions, was not carried out to the letter, as only ten millions were borrowed. The crisis was the cause of this borrowing abstemiousness. The Banco de Credito Territorial y Agricola did good service during the year and has at present over twelve millions lent out. Government has a right to a share in the profits of this bank.

Thirty-eight new settlements have been started, and the present number of colonies is 315, which cover an area of 2,851,579 hectares. Government has a project to colonize 200 leagues of land, by starting 40 fresh colonies in the north and north-west. Ten millions will be required for this purpose.

According to figures from the Statistical Office, the crops amounted in 1889 to $29,896,988, but the real amount must be over 30 millions.

There are 67 steam flour-mills in the province, which turned out last year 92,000 tons of flour. There are, besides, 8 distilleries, 2 oil factories and 2 sugar-factories.

In regard to immigration, 24,000 people came to Santa Fe last year, against 18,000 in 1888.

We skip over the chapter on railways, the principal features of which we purpose reproducing in our railway column.

The Governor concluded his lengthy message with a few remarks on the advantages of prudence and patriotism.

LADIES' LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Paris, April 11.

"'Tis expectation makes a blessing dear". So when the promised Spring comes it will be exceptionally welcomed, as no winter has ever been more abused than the last—but still present—for its vicissitudes and its epidemics. Fashion is full of vagaries. Guess the newest caprice of ladies: to attend auctions. When a furniture sale is announced the house is visited beforehand. When the goods are brought to the public mart they are re-inspected. If any article be desired, the auctioneer, who is a Government official, is asked, in writing, to buy it in, and ladies are supplied with chairs in a reserved part of the saleroom. It is interesting to witness pictures and "objets d'art" "going, going, gone". I know one gentleman whose wife ordered quite a cartload of what he called "old sticks". He sent the auctioneer a cheque for their cost and begged him to resell them. But his wife went into the huffs and next into a "Retreat." There is positively a rush to secure some memento of M Rochefort's penates that the Government is now selling off, he being an outlaw. General Boulanger's household gods will not be brought to the hammer; his furniture was only hired, and the rest belonged to his married daughter.

A word about the "Retreats". There are some Catholic convents where ladies, fatigued with the wear and tear of society, wearied from the chagrins of life, seek a passing repose; they are havens of rest for a few weeks for the weary and heavy laden There are six convents in Paris that afford this kind of temporary shelter, and there is also an establishment directed by secular ladies for boarders who dislike going "to a nunnery". Not a few ladies, and who are not Catholics, prefer the accommodation of the convent. It would be a mistake to suppose that the temporary inmate has to comply with the religious regulations of the convent or to conform to its austerities. The majority of the residents do so, but this is chiefly owing to that they select Lent for the period of their retreat. A mother and her eldest marriageable daughter will generally select the last three weeks in Lent. They may have relatives who choose the opening weeks of the forty days, and some rooms in a convent are rented for the year by a family.

I asked a lady, who had been doing three weeks' Retreat in a Paris convent, what kind of life was led there. She replied: you can live either like a recluse, or mix with the society. Those ladies who desire to follow the religious observances engage a bedroom, and take their repasts in the common dining hall. A very liberal table is kept—four or five dishes, with no stint of dessert, and a single wine—claret. If you rent a bed chamber and sitting room, the meals will be brought to your apartment by a nun, who cares your fire during the day, and at nine o'clock in the evening Curfew bell hour—she brings a hot foot jar of water for your bed. In addition to the ordinary religious duties, every afternoon, a homily—sermon of fifteen minutes—is preached by some distinguished clergyman and succeeded by vespers, where many ladies come specially to sing, several being renowned amateurs. Letters and telegrams are distributed morning and afternoon; nearly all news papers are admitted, only the address band ought to cover the name of the journal.

The Duchesse d'Uzès, who seems to be the fountain head of new ideas for fashionable society, has taken up the subject of window gardening for ladies, who will undertake to raise and tend apartment flowers themselves. At the several pull flower-shows a reserved space will be set apart for the disp'ay of these amateur and non-competing "florticulturistes." The duchess is one of the most charitable ladies in Paris; she has a very large circle of poor, that she daily visits, and among other donations, figure gifts of flowers in pots, from her own gardens. She has also introduced the plan of depositing among her lady friends bundles of bands, bearing the addresses of her "assisted friends," as she calls her poor, into which they can slip read newspapers, and that are posted with the family correspondence. One of her intimate friends is the celebrated communist, Louise Michel, who indicates deserving cases for relief, and few know the misery of the working classes better than that much misrepresented political old maid.

The Eiffel Tower has opened for the season. Of course, it will not command the vogue of last year, when the Exhibition made the fortune of its originator. The Champ de Mars is "furrin parts" for Parisians, and will continue so till it be connected with the heart of the city by rail. This draw back is the real cause why the authorities hesitate over the definite retention of the Exhibition buildings. After nearly five months of obscurity, the summit of the Tower has just displayed "Harbor Lights," that recalled, with a feeling of sadness, some pages of 1889 pleasant life. The social accommodation of the first story will be radically changed. There will be a vast bazaar for the sale of international curios; two restaurants, and another large room for weddings, balls or public meetings. The first of the latter will be inaugurated by the shareholders of the Tower Co. itself.

I notice this meeting because one of the most favorite contributions of an uncle or aunt to the "corbeille" of a niece is a share or two in the Eiffel Company, and which means not a percentage but a division of the annual receipts. The receipts during the Exhibition paid the cost of running up the Tower The Salvation army solicited the honor to open the Tower season, by holding a service in the new "salle;" the request was refused, but to prove he was not ungallant, M. Eiffel has allowed the free use of the mid-air hall for a Fancy Fair, in aid of the Consumptive Hospital for women, giving as the Company's contribution to the charity the half of the day's receipts.

An instance of the Social power of the fair sex. One of the prettiest suburbs about Paris is St. Cloud. In addition to many natura attractions, it possesses the ruins of its palace — the once Windsor Castle of France—the consequence of the 1870 71 invasion, and said to be the sole standing eye sore of that "annee terrible." The ruins are extremely picturesque, and have this peculiarity, that they lay bare, while not being altogether unrecognisable, the ornamental statuary and wall-sculpture of rooms where important events took place: such as the chamber where Princess Henrietta of England expired, the boudoir of Marie Antoinette, the Salle where Napoleon celebrated his marriage with the Archduchess Marie Louise, the study where Charles X. virtually signed away his crown, and which became later the schoolroom of the Prince Imperial. But, let us return to our forgotten sheep.

The Polytechnic school is composed of young men, destined to be "savants," and civil or military engineers. Many foreigners are admitted to the school as a favor. The graduates, on Sundays especially, may be encountered along the Boulevards in their smart uniform, three-cocked hat, swallow-tail coat and court sword. The school at Paris being too small, the question is, either to enlarge it, or erect a new building on the site of the ruined palace of St. Cloud. It is here where the fair sex intervene. The Polytechnians have the reputation of being the most elegant dancers in all France; at the official balls something like a battalion of them is demanded for ball room duty. Madame Carnot never has less than three hundred of these young gentlemen at her parties. The director of the school is constantly besieged with applications for "drafts" by ball givers, to ensure partners for their young lady-guests, as civilian gentlemen are more and more gravitating to the Mussulman idea of dancing. If the Polytechnians were to reside at St. Cloud, instead of in Paris, the supply of dancers would be imperatively curtailed, and thus, from the "soiree" point of view, that would be the beginning of the end of the world. St. Cloud will hence be defeated in its "great expectations."

The Government is about taking a wise step by suppressing the "betting offices," which have become as plentiful as blackberries, and a lamentable vice. Up to the present that form of gambling was a monopoly among men; now it has gnawed its way into the purses not only of the servant girls, but of their mistresses too. The betting is an official institution; in every tobacconist's, in every wine shop stakes from one franc to ten can be registered on a race horse, and in the afternoon, when the racing has taken place, the stakes, if not lost, may be quadrupled. There is no swindling in the transaction, but very queer shifts are resorted to and temptations yielded to in order to obtain the cash to gamble, and the minds of the "betteresses" become full of day dreams dashed with anxieties.

Prince Gortschakoff observed that politics made ladies ugly. Well, there ought to be just now in Royalist circles a sudden accession of plainness among the lady members, since they have not only tabooced dancing—the "Boston" not excepted—but gone into mourning on account of the imprisonment, which is theatrical as the ashes and sackcloth which bemourn it.

"—— Where lay so stately
A little Bourbon, buried lately,
'Thrice high and puissant', we are told,
Though only twenty-four hours old."

The sister-in-law of the Queen Regent of Spain was recently delivered of an infant that came into the world only to die. The little stranger was placed on a bed of flowers it its coffin, by Her Majesty, and had for grave clothes its prepared 'layette.' Then a special train of two carriages decked with flowers conveyed the remains from Madrid to the Escurial and deposited the still-born beside its ancestor—Charles V.

Spring materials promise to consist of grey cashmere embroidered with dull braid of Greek design. Scotch plaid, blue and plain, will be in request; also deep laurel green voile, trimmed with velvet; felt-grey voile and black velvet also make a nice dress. With the plaids an infinity of combinations can be effected. Sleeves will be worn different from the corsage, but will not be in velvet. There will likely be a return to a slight draping of gowns, as the light tissues cannot be made tight fitting.

The prevailing colors are neutral, but not sombre, and are shades of grey, biege, and mastic. Rose satin trimmed with gold beads, corsage and train in light green satin, is a favourite ball dress; white faille is in favour, and so is Pompadour damask, with white ground.

The capote bonnet is generally trimmed with velvet pansies—the latter is the favourite bonnet flower; often it is associated with mingonnette, bows of velvet and jet. Puckered tulle is in marked vogue for round hats. For the theatre the front of the bonnet is large and boldly elevated; is made in beige felt, bordered with velvet to match, and to line inside; feathers, same colour as the velvet, running round and forming a plume in front. Black, white, otter and claret straw are in request; for trimming, tulle, velvet, and aigrette of feathers. As a general remark, hats are either very large or very small, but the material must be so transparent as to allow the hair to be seen through the interstices of the tissue, for more than ever the hair plays an important role.

All ladies' hair is now of a yellowish-red shade, and wavy, "frisse," puffy and outlandish. Jewelry becomes more massive; bracelets are handcuffs ornamented with precious stones; where a brilliant can be introduced into the toilette, do so. Nothing new in jackets. Toilettes are covered with fancy embroidery; stockings, black or Scotch; shoes pointed and in patent leather.

Railway Items.

Perhaps the most interesting part of Governor Cafferata's message to the Santa Fe Chambers last Monday is the chapter on Railways. There are now 813 kilometres of railway in that province against 590 in the year 1888. The gross returns of the Provincial Railways during the year amounted to 902,221.95 dollars, an increase of 12 per cent on the preceding year. The tonnage of goods carried by the Provincial Railways, leased to Messrs Five-Lille, was 183,597. The lessees are building 500 kilometres of line, according to the contract of lease. In time, consequently, Messrs Five-Lille, will have no less than 1,199 kilometres of railway. This shews what strides French railway enterprise is making in the country. The Government pays the lessees a guarantee every year in 5 per cent bonds. In fact the arrangement, while benefitting the State, is highly favorable to the lessees. The service on these bonds is made by the lessees.

We clip the following from the River Plate Times:—

"We understand that the managers of the Midland Railway have ordered several sleeping cars from the United States, to put on the service between Montevideo and Paysandu. This is an excellent idea, and will greatly add to the convenience of passengers.

The Board of Public Works are cutting down the list of inspectors in the Provinces, and endeavoring to economise as much as possible.

The attention of Messrs. Lucas Gonzalez and Co. has been officially called to the bad condition of the road-bed in many parts on the Central Northern Extensions.

As there are only 200 men employed in repairing the Central Entre Rios, Government has ordered the number to be increased.

The following particulars about the Monte-Caseros and Goya Railway will be read with interest:—

The concession, granted to M. J. Losa, is for a line starting from some point on the North-Eastern Argentine Railway, in the Province of Corrientes, near the station at Mercedes, passing through the departments of San Roque, Lavalle and Goya, and terminating at the town of Goya on the eastern shore of the River Parana. The gauge is to be the same as the North East Argentine, and there is a guarantee of 5 per cent. for twenty years, on a cost not exceeding $28,000 gold per kilom. The department of San Roque is situated between the rivers Santa Lucia and Corrientes; its capital, San Roque, which has a population of 1,500, being on the banks of the former river. The pasturage in San Roque is very good. Lavalle contains some large herds of cattle, but is thinly populated. Goya is the most important department in the province. The pastures are the best, and the cheeses are exported to all parts of the Argentine Republic. The town of Goya, which has 5,000 inhabitants, is on the banks of the Parana, 150 miles south of Corrientes, and 676 miles from Buenos Ayres, with which there is water communication by steamers three times a week.

The Board of Public Works have thrown out the plans presented by the City Improvement Works for house-drains in the Boca and Barracas.

Government has approved the contract with the "Compañia Nacional de Trasportes," for laying a line from Victoria Station (Northern Railway) to San Justo Station, with a branch to the Chacarita.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The River Plate was not on fire yesterday, but, possibly, may be to-day, as the first of the "financial projects" will be laid before Congress: it has reference to the Augean Stable, alias the Custom House, a public department which some patriots now wish to saddle with at least half the blame of the crisis.

Talking of the Custom House, Minister Uriburu has rather astonished the natives there by insisting on paying duty on some furniture he has imported from Paris; although his representative was told he could take it through free! The Minister will probably want to know more about the official who made him such an offer.

The death of one of the most popular men in the army, General Nelson, was announced yesterday. He died in Mercedes, San Luis. Government has ordered the fullest honours to the remains. The deceased officer was a general favourite.

A Grand Concert organised by Madame Blume, in aid of the Belgrano Anglican Church fund, is to be given in the Salon Unioni Operai Italiani, Calle Cuyo 1374, on Monday evening June 2nd. Further particulars will be published later.

This is Paraguay's Independence Day. We salute all our subscribers of that nationality, and thank the Paraguayan Club for its kind invitation to its festivities to-night.

The Hurlingham Club announces a Polo Tournament on Friday next. Teams from Santa Fe, Quilmes and Buenos Ayres will compete. Four silver cups will be given to the winning team, one for each man. The special train will leave the Central Station at 10.30.

Gold and r. m. toggery both fell in price yesterday. An old subscriber of ours bought a splendid winter coat in a handme-down shop in Calle Corrientes for $30 Made by his tailor it would have cost $80.

A correspondent, writing to us from Montevideo, informs us that the Opera Company down there has proved a splendid success. Lucia proved a great hit, and the gifted prima donna, Mdlle. Tescher, so well known on this side of the water, achieved a magnificent triumph in the title-role. On the conclusion of the mad-scene, the house shook with applause, and the stage was literally covered with flowers.

The Buenos Ayres Amateur Dramatic Club will give its first private performance for this season on Wednesday the 21st inst. at the Concordia Rooms, when the plays "A Rough Diamond" and "Cut off with a shilling" will be produced. Members are reminded that applications for visitors and family tickets should be made, in writing, to the Secretary two days prior to the date of the performance. The applicant must give the name of the visitor for whom the ticket is required.

The Revd. Dr. Smith M. A. will preach on Sunday week, at noon, at the Estancia Negrette

That esteemed but irrepressible person the "pensionista" turned up as fresh as paint at the very first sitting of Congress on Monday. "Absit omen." Is there to be another deluge of pensions this year, in the very thickest of the crisis? Let us hope not. The pension voted to the widow and grand-children of Dr. Rawson is, of course, one which the whole country will applaud; and it is satisfactory to note that the honble Deputy who proposed it said it should be considered an exception in the present hard times, a hint which, it is to be hoped, the "pensionista" class will take to heart, and Congress act on, otherwise the attempts to reduce the public expenditure will prove to be moonshine.

We hear with sincere regret that letters from Teneriffe on board the Alfonso 12th, report ex-Lord Mayor Alvear, who sailed for Europe in that steamer, as having been dangerously ill on the passage, with a severe attack of congestion of the lungs, but he had rallied and was getting better when the mail left. The Alfonso had a splendid trip, "golden days and silver nights," as one of the passengers eloquently expresses it.

The Deputies at La Plata are evidently not in the same humour for reform and economy as Governor Costa. What is the meaning of proposing "premios" of $10,000 for Centros Agricolas that build a few extra ranchos and plant a few trees. The C. A. should be discouraged instead of encouraged; the Law that created them was a veritable Bateman Legacy for the province, even if it had never been grossly abused, as everybody knows it has.

Our lady readers, even if their French is the worse for the wear and tear of life, should go to hear the Coquelin company at the Politeama, if for no other purpose than to have a look at the superb toilettes worn by Mdlle. Lender in every role she plays. Neither Patti, Bernhardt, nor any other actress that has ever come here approached Madlle. Lender in taste, elegance and richness of dress. She is one of the best and most popular actresses in Paris, where a rumour was afloat on Sunday last that she had died on the passage out. Several cablegrams arrived here that night, one to M. de Glaser, the popular empresario of the company, making enquiries, and he at once cabled back that the gifted actress was all right. After the play M. de Glaser approached her saying "You will live to be a hundred. Look at this telegram asking if you are dead!" Madlle. fainted on the spot—but restoratives were at hand from the stage medicine chest, and she was soon herself again. And here we may mention that Mr. de Glaser has always, wherever he goes, a medicine chest and case of surgical instruments at hand: his experience goes to show that the most necessary of drugs is salts for that most suitable of feminine afflictions—"crise de nerfs." We hear that M. de Glaser is a partner in the great empresario firm of Meyer and Grau, one of the best-known in the theatrical world.

We have the Panama Star of April 5th, which is rather a late date from the Isthmus, where they are still hugging to their bosoms the delusion that the Canal works will be resumed. Dr. Palacio has been elected President of Venezuela. Another revolutionary rumpus is announced in Santo Domingo. Of course Hayti will follow suit, as Hayti averges five revolutions to Sto. Domingo's two. Besides, in the latter country the dominant spirit is, "My country first and self incidentally," whilst in Hayti it is just the reverse—"Me first and foremost, and my country incidentally"

The following is the latest naval news from Panama:—"The vessels of the English North Pacific squadron arrived in the Bay on the 24th, save the Espiegle, which has not yet turned up. The four ships Swiftsure, flagship of Admiral Hoseage, the Daphne, Nymphe and Espiegle left Acupulco on the 13th of March, and experienced rough weather for the first five days. The Nymphe had one boat carried away in Tepecuana Gulf. The Espiegle had several sails split and blown away. The Swiftsure lost a torpedo boom and had great difficulty in saving the torpedo netting. Her port lower studding-sail boom was broken in two, and her sails split in all directions, the fury of the gale obliging the ships to treble-reef their topsails. The seas were breaking all over the ships fore and aft continually. The remainder of the passage was very pleasant, and the squadron arrived at half-past ten a.m., being delayed in coming up the Bay about four hours by a thick fog. It is a long while since so many war vessels graced our harbor at one time, and we trust that their presence will enliven the monotony of things."

The City Commissioners failed again to come up to the quorum point on Monday, and their President decided to publish the names of the absent ones. Much they care; or the public either.

There is some opposition on the part of the Belgrano and Anglo

La proximidad de estos campos al Pueblo General Acha a donde muy pronto llegará la via ferrea; el gravamen hipotecario que excede en mas de un 50 ojo a la base establecida para la venta y la orden terminante que tenemos de vender exceidido esta base por lo tan infima; nos hace llamar la atencion de los Estancieros, agricultores y cuantos quieran invertir bien sus ahorros, lo coloquen en estos campos, en la seguridad de que dentro de muy poco tiempo tan pronto como se inaugure la linea ferrea habran multiplicado su capital.
Si á esto se agrega la devaluarizacion de la moneda por la alta cotizacion del metalico se comprenderá que no puede darse mas acertada colocacion.
Como de costumbre el comprador que se haga cargo de la hipoteca, tomará las cedulas a precio de Bolsa y estilo de plaza el dia antes de la escritura cion abonando el excedente al contado.

Dr. Carlos M. Marenco has been elected syndic of the Banco Nacional Inmobiliario, Mr. B. Sastre of the Banco Buenos Aires and Mr. Cogan of the Banco Agricola y Comercial del Rio Negro.

The meeting of shareholders of the Banco Industrial y Constructor was held yesterday. The report was approved by which the profits, set forth in the balance sheet at 119,585 dollars, will be carried to the reserve fund to cover the possible losses caused by the fraudulent proceedings of the ex-gerente; the capital will be reduced to one million dollars, by selling properties at any increase over twenty-five per cent of cost price and receiving shares in payment.

Mr. Andres C. Angibil has sold 13,162 hectareas of camp situated in Lobos, for 1,000,000 dols. to Mr. Pedro A. Costa, and Mr. G. T. Robinson purchased 90 hectareas in Almirante Brown for 100,000 dols., seller Mr. Julio Costa.

Business at the second hour was most important. The tide, which had begun to turn at the close of the first hour, set steadily in for a fall, and in spite of the bullish efforts to sustain the market, prices gave way steadily, leaving off at 238 cash, Saturday and end of month. The cause of the fall was simply the withdrawal of the late heavy buyers, and the speculation left to itself began to sink under its own weight. Sellers for dates were numerous, which is a good sign. It seems that no attempt will be made to force quotations down, which is a sensible policy, and 240 per cent is infinitely preferrable from every point of view to a rapid fall and inevitable reaction, giving rise to the fluctuations and oscillations that are the bane of business. Such is the temperment that prevails and points to a more or less stationary rate. Stocks revived, owing to the fall in gold, and National Bank Shares, which were friendless at 143 in the morning were looked for at 144 for cash and 143 end of month. Cedulas were quiet. Catalinas changed hands very briskly and an inevitable fall was stemmed by the reaction, as sellers were very eager at the start of the ring. Construtors improved a trifle, but were very quiet.

In exchange very little was done, and rates were quoted firm at 48d.; francs were rather weaker at 5·03 Paris and 5·04 Antwerp.

The following is a summary of operations effected this evening at the second ring:—

A new commercial firm was registered to-day, Messrs. Biel, Acobi and Co. These gentlemen intend starting a wax factory.

The creditors of Messrs. Berdoy, Calle and Co., who recently filed an application for "moratorium," are invited to meet on the 20th instant at two p.m. in the office of Mr. Reynoso, escribano. The creditors of Mr. Brochieri will meet on Friday at two p.m. in Judge Cigorraga's court to discuss the application for "moratorium."

With regard to the bank failure reported by the 'Operario Italiano,' our Italian colleague, it is the same as announced some few days ago in these columns, and is of no importance whatever, as only one bank, connected with Bolsa operations, has anything to do with the insolvent concern. The sooner the matter is wound up the better for all parties and for the bank itself.

The Finance Minister will lay before the Chambers to-morrow a project of reform for the Custom House, which will in part consist of the suppression of a host of employes, rendered necessary by the falling off in the Aduana receipts. With regard to the collection of part of the dues in gold, nothing definite is yet known, though it seems that this will depend on certain contingencies with regard to a foreign loan.

We received the following to-day:

"Buenos Aires,
"May 13th, 1890.

"To the Editor of THE STANDARD,

"Dear Sir,

"Having seen in the Buenos Aires daily papers some of the runs as made by mail steamers on the route from Montevideo and various ports between that city and Europe, I beg to call your attention to that of the Le Bresil, French mail steamer, which is said to have made the passage from Montevideo to Rio in forty-eight hours, which, taking the distance as 980 miles would give a speed of (say) twenty miles an hour, while the Atrato, Royal Mail steamer, takes eleven days to reach St. Vincent, 3700 miles (roughly) or an average of fourteen miles an hour. If the time, as occupied by the Le Brasil, be correct, she must be one of the fastest steamers afloat, in fact, equal in speed to the City of Paris, running from Queenstown to New York, a distance of 2880 miles in (say) six days, or an average of twenty miles an hour. Perhaps some subscriber interested in such matters would kindly inform me whether time and distance, as stated to have been made by Le Bresil, have been authenticated, and oblige

"Yours very truly,
"W. K. T."

Messrs. Peake, Ferrari and Co's. project to build four islands out in the river facing the Madero Port Works is one in every way worthy of the best support of all who have the welfare of the city at heart, for it means nothing short of rendering this the finest city far and away of any in South America. Indeed, if these works were to be carried out London and New York would be the only rivals in beauty and size to dear old Buenos Aires. These works are so intrinsically good and useful that they pay for themselves over a hundred fold. Messrs. Peake and Ferrari ask nothing from Government but permission to undertake the work, and we hope in the interest of the country, that every facility will be extended to them.

We understand that the project for the purchase of lands in Bahia Blanca belonging to the Banco Constructor de la Plata being found inadmissible by reason of half the payment being made in shares of the new company, it is now proposed by the representative of the syndicate to purchase same at 20 cents per metre, payable half cash and half in Banco Constructor shares. A much simpler and better transaction for all concerned; nor need the rise in shares be feared, even if the purchasers had not secured the full amount of stocks, as many on the Bolsa shrewdly suspect, for at the present high price of gold anything under par for the shares ought to leave ample margin for a brilliant stroke of business to the foreign capitalists.

The following passengers arrived by the Maskelyne:—Messrs. Francis W Hood, G Golladou, L G Tippinge, Geoffrey G Francis, E P Tate, Lady Shakespeare, Miss Shakespeare, Messrs. J Walter English, Ernest Robson, Frank Watson, Henry Carter, F C Williams, Arturo Cardozo, P Fernandez Oro, Enrique Racedo, Alfredo Racedo, G Kantorwicz, H W Crawford, Wm. Briscoe, A Briscoe, G Godwin, John Hammond, Geo. Palmer, Geo. Ford, B E Smart, G Barnett, A Asseck, Chas. Brewster, Geo. Darey, Chas. Bowden, Mr. P F Deuxeus wife and family, Mrs. L Volkmann and family, Mr. Max de Molinari, Mr. A Frison, Miss J Frison, Mr. H Gessel.

The R.M.S. Tamar cleared to-day with the following passengers and full cargo:—P Hoss, W Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Washier, Mr. Fitzgerald (Rosario) Hon. K. B. Lyon, John Williams, L. Seymour.

At a general meeting of shareholders of the English Bank of Rio de Janeiro to be held on the 23rd May it will be proposed to pay a dividend of $8, per share, payable on the 2nd of June, and to add £25,000 to the reserve fund.

The "Chuput Lands Company" has been launched. According to the memoria, of the Governor of that Territory, the Company has 320 leagues of land. Agriculture is advancing rapidly down there, the wheat having won a gold medal at the Paris Exhibition.

According to Paysandu Notes the sum paid by Liebig's Company for the "Bichadero" estancia in Rio Negro, was $60,600 per "suerte." The live stock on the same was sold for $104,000. The Paysandu complains that the maize growers of the district cannot compete with the grain sent from the Argentine Republic, and sold at a lower price than they can afford to accept. The maize harvest has been good but the wheat harvest bad, and in the sale of the former the farmers hoped to recoup themselves for their losses in the latter. The local custom house receipts for April were $6486.32. The river Uruguay was reported as unusually low at the beginning of the current week. Only vessels of 3 or 4 feet draught could pass Almirion and Paysandu, whilst the General Flores which arrived with 200 immigrants for the colonies in Salto, was detained at Paysandu. Sr. Justo Nuñes, the well-known stock-breeder of Queguay has just bought from Sir A. Esteves over 3000 head of cattle, of superior class paying over 20,000 dols.

One of Adams and Westlake's Celebrated Kerosene stoves is a real comfort at this time of the year. They burn brightly and steadily, give a good heat, require no chimney flue or stove-pipe, can be carried from one room to another, and are entirely free from smell or smoke.
We have no hesitation in stating that there is no kerosene stove in the world to equal this, either in heating power or freedom from smell. To be had of our agents, Wolseley Sheep Shearing Machine Company, limited.

This company is prepared to supply the Wolseley Sheep Shearing Machines, with their accessories, in any quantities. They are now coming into general use in Australia, where, during the past season upwards of 7,000,000 of sheep have been shorn by hem; and it is confidently expected that even 20,000,00 will be shorn by them in that country this year. The following are some of their proved advantages over the ordinary shears:—

Estimated at per sheep per clip.

(1) Increase is quantity and value of wool (See testimonials)....	1½d.
(2) Increased value of pelts owing to total absence of cuts.....	1
(3) Saving of 1 per cent, usual allowance for deaths resulting from cuts and stabs	2½
(4) Saving of labor and time, as the work can be performed in half the time usually occupied with the old style of shearing....	1½
Total per clip per sheep.....	6d.
(5) Total absence of suffering to the sheep.

These economies add enormously to the income of the Australian wool-growers, and are applicable relatively to sheep-farmers everywhere.
The Wolseley machines may be seen in actual work at the Agricultural Rural Exhibition at Palermo.
For fur her particulars apply to the agents, Messrs. Agar, Cross & Co., Calle Defensa 12 & 136, Buenos Ayres, where certificates and testimonials can be seen.

Dr. J. Collis Browne's CHLORODYNE.
THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE

Advice to Invalids.—If you wish to obtain quiet refreshing sleep, free from headache, relief from pain and acid anguish, to calm and assuage the weary achings of protracted disease, invigorate the nervous media and regulate the circulating systems of the body, you will provide yourself with that marvellous remedy discovered by D. We could multiply instances "ad infinitum" of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne in Diarrhœa and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative that have occurred under our personal
